NEVADA TOWNS BID FOR FIGHT.

SOME TALK ABOUT A CARNIVAL.

Olympian Games May Be Held During the Week of the Big Contest-Corbett Will Visit Relatives Before Going to Nevada.

Sarson, Nev., Jan. 31.—It was learned to-day that Reno had raised $5,000 to offer Dan Stuart as a bonus to take the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to that place, and that Virginia City will raise Reno $1,000. Carson is staying in the background when it comesto bidding, but this by no meaussignifles that she is lacking in vigliance. On the other hand there is a great deal of work seing done here , and when the time comes

It is expected to count.

A plan has been proposed that, if approved by Mr. Stuart, will make March 17 next a date to be remembered by the sporting world for some time to come. The idea is to re-establish Olympian games, such as were revived in Greece last Summer. The News, in spenking of this matter this evening, says:

FIRST BETS ON THE FIGHT.

several large wagers made on the coming fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons Corbett naturally is the favorite of the big settors and his admirers are compelled to ay odds in order to get their money down, hough in some lustances Fitzsimmons's clends have bet at even. Thus the market ustnates and will not settle until the men re really located at their training quarezs, and the battle ground is named. The best wager on the battle recorded to ate was made by Joe Vondig, who inid 1,000 even with a prominent wholesale ry goods merchant. Al Smith was comelled to put up $1,000 to $700 with a otted physician at Delmonico's on Thursay night.

There is an abundance of Corbett money n sight to wager at odds as high as 10 to 7. Il Smith has been commissioned to bet 40,000 at this price, while "Smithg ohnny" Kelly has $5,000 commission from dockmaker J. E. McDonnid, who sailed or England last Wednesday.

Mattic Corbett is said to be betting freely in Corbett, and Ike Thompson is making a sook on the fight, and will bet against lither.

the Star Athletic Club.

Just thirty-five cross-country enthusia staresponded to the invitation of the Star athletic Club, of Long Island City, and Island in the club's big run yesterday afternoon. Captain Al. Hommarth, of the Stars, who is one of the few old time cross-country men now taking an active in cerest in the sport, and who knows every inch of ground for miles around, promised the boys a long.

Another source of severe criticism is the manner in which the committee treated the application of the Knollwood Country Club to have its membership changed from allied to associate. The committee laid the matter over to the next meeting, with the filmsy excuse that it didn't want to assume the responsibility without a full Board being present. Still it did not hesitate to act upon the new rating of the amateur in order to qualify for the championship competition, a matter of far greater importance.

RACE TRACK IN CARSON, NEV., WHERE CORBETT AND FITZSIMMONS WILL PROBABLY FIGHT.

This picture is reproduced from photographs of the race track in Carson City, the capital of Nevada, where the Corbett and Fitzsimmons championship battle will in all probability take place, through a recent act of the Legislature legalizing prize fighting in that State. The grand stand, under the proposed arrangement of extending the right and left wings so as to form a crescent-shaped amphitheatre extending half way around the ring, will give a seating capacity of about 6,000.

It is about a ten-minute walk from the Capitol building to the seat of the fight, and twenty minutes from the Virginia & Truckee Railroad Depot. Carson, among its adjacent attractions, has the prehistoric footprints of giants at the State Penitentiary, two miles from the Capitol; the Comstock silver mines in Virginia City, twenty-one miles from Carson, and Slingerland's hot springs and geysers, two miles to the northward. The population is about 5,000.

The hares, Dwane. AcCorry and Hommarth, were started by timer John Andrews at 3 o clock. Seven minutes later the slow pack of fifteen men, among whom were young and Wiegr ad, of the Stars; S. George F. wers, of the Stars; and J. Smith, N. Y. A. L. had charge of the intermediate pack, which started at 3.15. Little Pfortnet of the Pastimes, and his club mates, J. Se Enright and P. McNabb, together with T. Kennedy and Mason, of the Stars, led me fast pack, which started off at hots e at 3.20.

The distance covered was about seven miles. Hommarth was first in, at 3.48.30, followed by Dwane, at 3.52, and McCorry, 153348. Kennedy was fourth in, at 3.55, being the first of the fast pack to finish. Mason was next in, at 3.57, with Wiegand, of the slow pack, right at his heels. The two Queens County men, Weish and Morris, were the next to finish, just one minutes ahead of Pfortner, who met with an accident and limped home. McCorry and Dwane had Trozen toes to doctor after the run.
